What are/How do the Illuminati's 14 Stages of World War III Align with Biblical Prophecy?

Sixbert SANGWA • October 06, 2024

As we approach what appears to be the end times, biblical prophecies seem to be unfolding rapidly. Ezekiel 38-39 describes a pre-tribulation war in the Middle East, potentially paving the way for the Antichrist's rise. These chapters detail a coalition led by Gog, a leader from the north, invading Israel. Many scholars interpret this coalition as Muslim states and their allies. The prophecy portrays a massive attack on Israel, with God intervening to protect His people and judge the invaders (Ezekiel 38:15-16).
This passage is often interpreted as a prophecy of a pre-tribulation war—a conflict preceding the Antichrist's rise and the final seven-year tribulation. The nations mentioned (Gog, Magog, Persia, Cush, Put, and others) are frequently associated with modern-day Middle Eastern and North African countries, some historically hostile to Israel. This interpretation aligns with current geopolitical tensions, with Israel at the center of regional conflicts. The prophecy also mentions Sheba, Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish as offering protests against the invasion. This could be interpreted as Western nations, suggesting global superpowers might play a role in such a scenario (Ezekiel 38:13).

Interestingly, these events also align with a secretive Illuminati plan from August 15, 1871, which outlines three world wars that must occur before the Antichrist's rise under their New World Order project. This plot suggests the third world war would unfold in 14 stages, beginning gradually but culminating in nuclear warfare. Recent Middle Eastern developments seem to correspond with this plan, often dismissed as a conspiracy theory. As events unfold, it appears the conflict has already followed the first four stages outlined in this shadowy Illuminati scheme. Consequently, there's a need to examine potential future developments in light of these pre-planned trajectories. This article aims to explore the Illuminati plan for World War III, detailing its 14 stages, assessing the current stage of conflict, and discussing the next phases as outlined in these controversial predictions. Here are the 14 planned stages of World War III according to the Illuminati agenda:

1. Hamas Attacks Israel to Ignite the War

According to sources regarding the Illuminati plan for World War III, a military attack on Israel by one of their proxy forces (often labeled as terrorist groups) was meant to be the war-triggering event. This first stage occurred on October 7, 2023, when Hamas launched a significant attack on Israel. The surprise assault included rocket fire, incursions into Israeli territory, and targeted attacks. This attack led to widespread violence and marked a major escalation in the ongoing Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Resulting in numerous casualties and hostage-taking, it prompted a swift and forceful response from Israel (BBC News, 2023). However, considering the connection between the third world war and the Russia-Ukraine conflict, one could argue that this eschatological event began in 2014 when Russia invaded Ukraine to occupy Crimea as strategically planned earlier.

2. Israel Declares War on Gaza, Resulting in Numerous Casualties, Including Militants

The second stage of this controversial plan involved Israel engaging in war with Gaza. According to the illuminati's plan, Israel was to declare war on Gaza, resulting in numerous casualties, including militants. In line with this plan, Israel declared war against Hamas on October 8, 2023, in response to Hamas's surprise attack the previous day (ABC News, 2023). This declaration came after an emergency cabinet meeting where the Israeli government invoked Article 40 of its Basic Law, officially putting the country on a war footing (The Jerusalem Post, 2023).

3. Hezbollah and other militant groups begin attacking Israel in support of Hamas

According to the Illuminati's shadowy plan, the third stage of the war involves Hezbollah and other militant groups attacking Israel in support of Hamas. This also happened as per their schedule. As outlined in various reports, Hezbollah and other armed groups joined the conflict in support of Hamas. This escalation occurred following the initial outbreak of hostilities, with Hezbollah increasing its military activities against Israel.
According to ABC7 Chicago, Hezbollah launched multiple rockets into northern Israel in the days following the Hamas attack, escalating tensions along the Israel-Lebanon border (ABC7 Chicago, 2023). From October 2023 onwards, Hezbollah engaged in frequent rocket and missile strikes against Israeli targets. These attacks included the use of anti-tank guided missiles and other weapons, violating UN Security Council Resolution 1701—which had previously aimed to maintain peace along the Israel-Lebanon border (CSIS, 2023).

4. Israel launches a devastating counterattack against Hezbollah and initiates brutal ground operations in southern Lebanon, occupying the region

The plan stipulates that, in the fourth stage, Israel would launch a devastating counterattack against Hezbollah and initiate brutal ground operations in southern Lebanon, eventually occupying it. In this vein, the conflict escalated dramatically on September 28, 2024, when Israeli forces reportedly assassinated Hezbollah leader Hassan Nasrallah (US Institute of Peace, 2024. This event triggered intensified military operations by Israel against Hezbollah positions in Lebanon. Israel ramped up its actions, conducting airstrikes that reportedly killed over 1,000 people in Lebanon—many of them civilians (Al Jazeera, 2024).
On September 30, 2024, Israeli ground forces crossed into southern Lebanon, launching a targeted offensive against Hezbollah militants (CNN, 2024). This move followed weeks of airstrikes and military actions against the group. The same day, Iran launched a significant missile attack on Israel, marking a major escalation in the conflict (CNN, 2024). Despite suffering significant losses, Hezbollah vowed to continue fighting. With thousands of fighters and a substantial arsenal at its disposal, the group poses a considerable challenge to Israel's ground operation (AP News, 2024).
The escalation, particularly Iran's direct involvement, has raised serious concerns about a wider regional conflict, given Hezbollah's close tie to Iran. On October 1, 2024, Iran launched a significant missile and drone attack on Israel, marking a major escalation in the conflict (The New York Times, 2024). This direct assault by Iran on Israeli territory has dramatically heightened tensions in the region. With Iran's aggression now manifest, could Israel's response lead to the fifth stage of the sinister plan?

Observing the conflict's progress in relation to the Illuminati plan reveals an apparent alignment with this long-known conspiracy theory, following the completion of the first four stages outlined above. If the war were to continue according to this purported agenda, the following stages might unfold as per their hypothetical trajectory:

- Stage 5: Israel launches heavy airstrikes on Iran, claiming that Iran provides 70% of Hamas's and 90% of Hezbollah's military equipment and funding
- Stage 6: Iran hits back with airstrikes and declares war against Israel
- Stage 7: All Muslim and Arab nations will initiate what is known as Intifada (using a wide range of weapons, including unconventional items like stones and sand)
- Stage 8: The United States, United Kingdom, European Union, Australia, Canada, and their allies will support Israel
- Stage 9: Russia, China, North Korea, Turkey, Pakistan, and the Arab world, along with their allies, will support Hamas, Hezbollah, the Palestinians, and Iran.
- Stage 10: The war in Ukraine gets even worse as Russia crushes the Ukrainian forces and takes more territory
- Stage 11: NATO finally enters the fray, and Ukraine and Europe engage in a planned total war involving tactical nuclear weapons
- Stage 12: China, Iran, Northern Korea, Arab nations and their allies will stand with Russia in that war. USA, NATO, European Union, UK, Canada, Australia and their allies will stand will Ukraine.
- Stage 13: China will launch a devastating attack on Taiwan in an attempt to annex the island
- Stage 14: The United States will intervene to support Taiwan, and all hell will break loose on Earth.

In conclusion, the convergence of current geopolitical events, particularly in the Middle East, with the prophecies of Ezekiel 38-39, points toward a significant spiritual and global unfolding of the end times. The war described in Ezekiel involves a coalition of nations attacking Israel, only to be divinely thwarted by God. This scenario aligns with the escalating conflict in the Middle East, with many viewing the alliances between Muslim states and other global powers as part of the prophetic narrative. The involvement of nations like Russia, Iran, and Turkey in regional conflicts can be seen as a modern reflection of the ancient prophetic coalition against Israel.

Furthermore, the conspiracy surrounding the Illuminati's alleged plan for World War III, while controversial, is seen as part of the larger end-times framework. While it remains secretive, the unfolding stages of conflict, including the recent Hamas-Israel war, fuel discussions that these events are steering the world towards a climactic global war. However, the Bible provides clear assurances: despite the terrifying conflicts and alliances prophesied, God will ultimately protect His people and ensure His sovereign will prevails. As Christians, these times call for vigilance and faith, knowing that God's plan for the world, including the return of Christ, will come to pass in His perfect timing.

Ezekiel 38-39 reminds believers that the ultimate victory belongs to God, and while global powers may rise and fall, His reign is eternal. Therefore, while these events signal the approach of the end times, they also point to the hope of Christ's return and the establishment of His kingdom, where justice, peace, and righteousness will reign forever.
